

JANE GOODALL

Jane Goodall studied and fought for animals, especially chimpanzees, and educated the world about the importance of conservation, proving naysayers wrong and changing the way people relate to animals and the Earth.

Naysayers: people who say things like “you can’t do that” or “you’ll never win” a girl with a dream

a naturalist
breaking barriers

a speaker
spreading hope

Conservation: saving and conserving the Earth’s natural resources for the future